

WALKING IN WISDOM: CONFLICT
SELECTED PROVERBS
SEPTEMBER 20TH, 2020
PASTOR JESSE SMITH

I. Introduction

Our hearts are susceptible to the poison of sin which disrupts unity among God's people. Thankfully, God has given us the antidote in his word and his Son.

II. The Poison of Hate and Antidote of Love

- a. Hatred stirs up _____.
- b. Love _____ a multitude of offenses.

III. The Poison of Impatience and antidote of Patience

- a. A _____ man stirs up strife
- b. He who is slow to anger _____ contention

IV. The Poison of Gossip and the Antidote of Advocating

- a. A whisperer _____ close friends
- b. It can be one's _____ to overlook an offense

V. Conclusion

Proverbs warns us because there is venom in our hearts that we so readily inject into our relationships causing them to deteriorate and even die. But there is an antidote that teaches to walk in love which is ours through the blood of Jesus Christ.